ENTRY RULES

› Create a black and white design reflecting the theme "It Came from the Library."

› Entry must be in pen or marker and drawn in the 8" x 8" space provided on the back of this form.

› Participants must be 12-19 years-old and have a valid Miami-Dade Public Library System (MDPLS) library card.

› Artwork must be an original design and should not be based on or include any copyrighted material. Limit to one entry per teen.

› Artwork will be judged by library staff based on originality and interpretation of the theme, "It Came from the Library". The words of the theme "It Came from the Library" do not have to be included in your submission.

› All entries become the property of MDPLS and will not be returned. Designs will be reproduced for use by the library.

› Employees of MDPLS and their families are not eligible to participate.

› Entries must be submitted by Saturday, September 8, 2012 to any branch library.
